"Every morning is a fresh beginning. Every day is the world made new. Today is a new day. Today is my world made new. I have lived all my life up to this moment, to come to this day. This moment-this day-is as good as any moment in all eternity. I shall make of this day-each moment of this day-a heaven on earth. This is my day of opportunity." Dan Custer

John Wesley travelled 250,000 miles on horseback, averaging 20 miles a day for 40 years; learnt 10 new languages. At 83 he was annoyed that he could not write more than 15 hours a day without hurting his eyes, and at 86 he was ashamed he could not preach more than twice a day. He complained in his diary that there was an increasing tendency to lie in bed until 5:30 in the morning!

A farmer lived on the same farm all his life. It was a good farm, but with the passing of years, the farmer began to tire a bit and he longed for a change, for something better. Every day he found a new reason for criticising some feature of the farm. Finally he decided to sell and contacted an estate agent, who promptly prepared a sale advertisement. As one might expect, it emphasised all the farms advantages – ideal location, modern equipment, healthy stock, acres of fertile ground, etc. Before advertising, the agent called the farmer and read the copy to him for his approval. When he had finished, the farmer said, ‘Hold everything! I’ve changed my mind. I’m not going to sell. I’ve been looking for a place like that all my life!’

Sometimes when I feel like I’m getting older I’m reminded of the little boy who was talking to his grandfather. The little boy said, “Grandpa, I heard you say that all the people who were alive when the floods came were killed, except for Noah and his family, because of their sin. Is that right?” And the grandfather said, “that’s right, son”. The little boy replied, “well, if that’s true, then how did you and grandma make it

The story is told of the famous boxer Muhammad Ali, who was flying one time to an engagement. The aircraft ran into severe turbulence and was soon being shaken violently. The passengers were all instructed to fasten their seatbelts straightaway. Everyone complied except Ali. Noticing this, a stewardess approached him and asked him to fasten his seatbelt. Ali replied, “Superman don’t need no seatbelt.” The stewardess took one look at him and retorted, “Superman don’t need no aeroplane either!”

“You cannot afford to wait for perfect conditions. Goal-setting is often a matter of balancing timing against available resources. Opportunities are easily lost while waiting for perfect conditions”
